

TorchStone Launches Premier Security Consulting Office in Los Angeles

New York, NY—June 04, 2014— TorchStone, the elite consulting firm specializing in comprehensive and strategic security solutions for high profile individuals and high net worth families, is pleased to announce the June 1, 2014 opening of a regional office in Los Angeles, CA. Formally expanding to the West Coast of the United States is a natural progression for the unique and innovative New York-based security company. Its diverse clientele rely on TorchStone's subject matter expertise to protect people, assets, and private information in every operating environment around the world.

"Four years of steady growth and an expanding customer list made it increasingly apparent that we needed to open a permanent office in Southern California," said Frank Rodman, the President of TorchStone Global. "The consultants spearheading our West Coast expansion will add diverse and dynamic security expertise to our organization and allow us to better serve the area's affluent community."

Armed with cutting-edge security technologies and years of unparalleled experience protecting high profile individuals and organizations, TorchStone consultants will provide something different to the 660,000 members of California's millionaire community. TorchStone offers the value of a trusted relationship with a well-credentialed and influential team of security advisors possessing global resources, access and information. To the corporate security teams responsible for protecting those individuals, their families, and businesses, TorchStone consultants offer the tools necessary to make sensible security-related decisions in an unpredictable, dynamic, and complex international operating environment.

"This company is different than any other security firm in Los Angeles," said Carol Marshall, TorchStone Global Senior Consultant and manager of the new Los Angeles Office. "Based on our team's professional background in dignitary protection with the U.S. Secret Service and U.S. Department of State, and our track record of success supporting the security needs of billionaire families around the world, we are uniquely qualified to handle a broad range of clients' concerns. For example, we offer residential and cyber security, vulnerability assessments, travel risk intelligence and support, crisis planning, emergency response, investigations and fraud prevention."

TorchStone's new office is located in the Oppenheimer Tower at 10880 Wilshire Boulevard, in the Westwood area of Los Angeles. Individuals or businesses interested in TorchStone Global services should call (310) 470-3909 or visit <http://www.torchstoneglobal.com> for more information.
